Label Releases – Updated April 2018

	The Hungry Onions She's a Mod Named after a once popular Southern California beatnik haunt from the mid-sixties, the Hungry Onions, on their debut CD, She's a Mod, create a blend of garage pop, melodic psych, and surf rock. Jam packed with jangly hooks and reverb soaked harmonies, the album has a vibe that is both retro and contemporary.		The Spoils Farewell to Dignity Digital-only album by Austin's heavy surf combo The Spoils, entitled Farewell to Dignity! Features 12 noisy surf-inspired instrumentals that draw inspiration from global rhythms and the ongoing consolidation of wealth and power by those who can least be trusted with it. Available at CD Baby and all digital outlets.
	v/a Surf Austin 2017 Edition The new compilation CD featuring the best of the current Austin surf scene produced in cooperation with Surf Austin. Features music by The Nematoads, The Del-Vipers, The Spoils, Hungry Onions, Bat City Surfers, The Baffles, and eight more.		King Pelican Matador Surfer Debut CD by San Antonio's own King Pelican. Matador Surfer features 10 shimmering instrumentals with a modern traditional sound.
	Dirty Fuse Last Wave Stunning collection of 15 surf instrumentals that express a respect for the past and strong desire for the modern. Last Wave takes you from '60s California to modern day Greece.		The Spoils Have A Drink With Debut CD by Austin heavy surf combo The Spoils. Features 8 edgy and powerful instrumentals.
	The Derangers The Legend of Daphne Blue and the Westernmental Sound The debut CD by longtime Boston instrumental combo The Derangers. Features 13 spaghetti westerns that showcase the best songs written and recorded over a 20-year period. Includes spooky instrumental themes, encompassing spaghetti western, surf, spy, and more. Call it desert surf or Texas surf.		The Dead Rocks Surf Explosion American debut from Brazil's legendary surf combo. Features 11 all new energetic trad surf tunes.
	v/a Deep Eddy Three-Way Vol. 1 It's a new and unique compilation featuring three exclusive songs each by three bands from three different countries. Includes new songs by The Invisible Surfers (Greece), The Twang-O-Matics (Norway), and El Pincho (The Netherlands).		Kill, Baby...Kill! Human Sounds Vol. 1 – Stop Off in Ridgeview Digital-only EP follows up their critically acclaimed CD Corridor X. This release marks both an honest extension of the sounds from the previous album, as well as a new experiment in vocal music. For fans of Man or Astro-man?, Ghastly Ones, Fugazi, Sonic Youth, etc. Available through CD Baby and all digital outlets.
	Apache 65 Kingdom of the Snake A unique blend of surf, blues, and spoken word. It's the soundtrack to your next indie film. New Orleans is the location of Apache 65's soundtrack of cinematic noir. Apache 65's sound combines spaghetti-western surf and Texas garage rock and roll and draws from influences from the various sights and sounds of the Basin City.		Surf Zombies It's a...THING! Their newest and most melodic CD yet. It's a...THING! Contains 14 instrumentals that stretch across genres like surf, punk, fuzz, and rock & roll. Great playing, songwriting, and of course those great guitar tones.
