THE DEMANDS - HIGH WIRE CD

The Demands new CD High Wire is sexy as hell. This three-piece sounds like a much bigger band – Jahna Rain's sultry vocals have been compared to Chrissy Hynde and Etta James, John Pardo's guitar work owes as much to Creedence as it does to Television, and drummer Memphis Mike is a powerhouse that ties it all together with a tornado's speed and energy. Rain and Pardo's songwriting effectively fuses the swing and stomp of 60's soul with the angular edginess of 70's punk and the melodic impact of power-pop and glam rock. High Wire also features lush backing vocals from Cynthia Santiglia (High School Sweethearts, Holmes), Paige Sixteen (High School Sweethearts) and Julia Rogers (Mister Badger, Curly Cues and formerly of the Demands).

The Demands currently hail from Yonkers, Brooklyn and Jersey City (and partially Memphis, TN). Although Jahna Rain and John Pardo have been collaborating as The Demands since 2000, the band has grown at times from the original three piece to include as many as six members, depending on the sound they are looking to create.

High Wire is The Demands' second full-length release on Deep Eddy Records.
